

FOUNDRY AT PURITAN MILL

Built in 1921 as a soap manufacturing building, The Foundry at Puritan Mill is a dramatic and flexible event space. Original pine beams, expansive skylights, and polished concrete floors offer a backdrop with character and history, illustrating the industrial past and lively present of Atlanta's popular Westside. At 12,000 square feet, the spacious interior affords ample room for the installation of virtually any event – from formal weddings to high-energy social or corporate events.
